You Will Catch People for the Kingdom of God

Prayer for All Souls

Prayer of St. Gertrude the great dictated by Our Lady to release 1,000 Souls from Purgatory each time it is said.

Eternal Father, I offer Thee the Most precious Blood of Thy Divine Son, Jesus in union with the Masses said throughout the world today...

St. Gertrude the Great was born in Germany in 1263. She was a Benedictine Nun, and meditated on the Passion of Christ...

Abortion isn't a lesser evil, it's a crime. Taking one life to save another, that's what the Mafia does. It's a crime. It's an absolute evil.

Meditation Why did Jesus perform the miracle of the great catch of fish? No doubt the great crowd of people who had pressed upon Jesus had something to do with this miracle.

God expects greater things than we can do by ourselves

This incident tells us an important truth about how God works in and through each of us for his glory. God expects of us greater things than we can do by ourselves.

When God's word is spoken his kingdom is revealed and his power is released. When people respond to God's word with faith and obedience they are changed and made "a new creation" in Jesus Christ (2 Corinthians 5: 17).

Witness the joy of the Gospel

God chooses ordinary people, like you and me, as his ambassadors and he uses the ordinary circumstances of our daily lives and work situations to draw others into his kingdom. Jesus speaks the same message to us today: we will "catch people" for the kingdom of God if we allow the light of Jesus Christ to shine through us.

Do you witness to those around you the joy of the Gospel and do you pray for your neighbors, co-workers, and relatives that they may come to know the Lord Jesus Christ and grow in the knowledge of his love and truth?

Lord Jesus, fill my heart with love and compassion for those who do not know you or follow you. May I be a good witness of your truth and salvation to my family, friends, and co-workers.

Reading 1 1 Cor 3: 18-23

Brothers and sisters: Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you considers himself wise in this age, let him become a fool, so as to become wise. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness in the eyes of God...

Responsorial Psalm 24:1bc-2, 3-4ab, 5-6

R. (1) To the Lord belongs the earth and all that fills it. The LORD's are the earth and its fullness; the world and those who dwell in it. For he founded it upon the seas and established it upon the rivers.

Gospel LK 5:1-11

While the crowd was pressing in on Jesus and listening to the word of God, he was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret. He saw two boats there alongside the lake; the fishermen had disembarked and were washing their nets.

Today's Saints

St. Giles

Born to the wealthy, Greek nobility; when his parents died, Giles gave his fortune to help the poor. Known as a miracle worker. To avoid followers and adulation, he left Greece c.683 for France where he lived as a hermit in a cave in the diocese of Nimes, a cave whose mouth was guarded by a thick thorn bush, and a lifestyle so impoverished that, legend says, God sent a deer to Giles to nourish him with her milk: a tradition developed that made him a patron of nursing mothers, and those suffering with breast cancer.

One day after he had lived there for several years in meditation, a royal hunting party chased the deer into Giles' cave. One hunter shot an arrow into the thorn bush, hoping to hit the deer, but instead hit Giles in the leg, crippling him. The king sent doctors to care for hermit's wound, and though Giles begged to be left alone, the king came often to see him. From this, Giles' fame as sage and miracle worker spread, and would-be followers gathered near the cave. The French king, because of his admiration, built the monastery of Saint Gilles du Gard for these followers, and Giles became its first abbot, establishing his own discipline there.

Born: at Athens, Greece

Died : • between 710 and 724 in France of natural causes• legend says that those who attended his funeral heard choirs of angels singing and then fading away as they carried his soul to heaven• his tomb is in the crypt of the abbey church of Saint-Gilles, Gard, France• in 1562, Huguenots burned the abbey, murdered the monks, looted the church, and vandalized the tomb; the surviving relics of Saint Giles were distributed to other churches• in Scotland in the seventeenth century, his relics were stolen from a church which triggered a great riot

Patronage: • against breast cancer • against cancer in general; of cancer patients • against epilepsy; of epileptics • against noctiphobia or fear of night; of noctiphobics • against insanity or mental illness; of mentally ill people • against leprosy; of lepers • against plague • against sterility or barrenness • against drought • against fire • against storms • abandoned people; against abanpment • beggars • bread feeding or nursing mothers • disabled, handicapped or physically challenged people • cripples • hermits • poor people, paupers • forests, wood lands • horses • rams • blacksmiths • shepherds • spur makers • • Graz, Austria • Klagenfurt, Austria • Monte San Savino, Italy • Tolfa, Italy • Edinburgh, Scotland

St. Beatrice da Silva Meneses

St. Beatrice da Silva Meneses

St. Beatrice da Silva Meneses, Religious (Feast - September 1) Beatrice was born in Ceuta, Portugal, in 1424. She was the daughter of the Count of Viana, and the sister of St. Amedeus of Portugal. In Portugal, Beatrice is known as Brites. Raised in the household of Princess Isabel, Beatrice went to Spain with her when Isable married John II of Castile. Eventually, she tired of court life and entered the Cistercian convent at Toledo. In 1484, Beatrice founded the Congregation of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary. The groups first house was the castle of Galliana, a gift from Queen Isabel. Beatrice died at Toledo on September 1, 1490 and was canonized by Pope Paul VI in 1976. In his own wisdom, God calls each individual to a particular vocation. The life of St. Beatrice reminds us of how important it is for us to be always open to God's designs in our regard, and to pray that his will be done.

Feastday: September 1 Patron: of Prisoners Birth: 1424 Death: 1490

Beatified: 28 July 1926, Rome, Kingdom of Italy, by Pope Pius XI Canonized: 3 October 1976, Vatican City, by Pope Paul VI

Bl. Giuliana of Collalto

Bl. Giuliana of Collalto

Born to the Italian nobility, the daughter of Count Rambaldo VI and Countess Giovanna of Sant'Angelo di Mantua. She received a Christian education, and at age 12, she entered the Benedictine convent of Santa Margherita di Salarola near Calaoane, Italy. There she became a friend of Blessed Beatrix of Este the Elder who entered the convent in 1220. Founded a Benedictine convent on Spinalonga (modern Gludecca) off Venice, Italy, and served as its abbess. Known for her charity and care for the local poor. Late in life she began suffering from severe headaches, possibly migraines, which led to her patronage of others who do. Blessed Giuliana was reported to be a miracle worker, including • instantly healing the shattered broken arm of one of her nuns by praying over her• she went to the prison cell of an innocent man, opened the prison doors and removed all his chains simply by praying over them• one Christmas a severe storm kept the local priest from reaching the convent, Giuliana prayed about the problem; an angel carrying the Christ child appeared to the nuns, announcing the birth of Jesus

Born: 1186 in Collalto, Susegana, Treviso, Italy

Died: • 1 September 1262 at Venice, Italy of natural causes• buried in the cemetery of the San Biagio church of the Spinalonga convent• the location of her grave was lost, but in 1297 dozens of small flaming torches were seen to hover over it: her body found to be incorrupt• relics enshrined in a wooden sarcophagus the in the church altar in 1733• relics moved to the church of the Redeemer in Venice in 1810• relics moved to the Saint Anne chapel at the parish church of Saint Euphemia in Venice in 1820• the original wooden sarcophagus is on exhibit in the Museo Correr in Venice• some relics enshrined in a church in Collalto, Italy

Beatified: 20 May 1753 by Pope Benedict XIV (cultus confirmed) Patronage: • against headaches• against migraines; of migraine sufferers
